

ARRAIGNMENTS AND PLEAS.

Many Prisoners Appear in the Criminal Court This Morning.

In the Criminal Court, Judge Hagner, this morning a number of arraignments took place and pleas were taken.

The first was that of Thomas H. Heath, an old colored man, indicted for the murder of Emanuel Tapen in November last, for whom Mr. A. K. Brown appeared, and he plead not guilty. This homicide grew out of a quarrel between the parties, who occupied a house on 3d street southwest, and it is understood that the defense will be that on November 16 they came to blows, that the deceased threatened to use an ax, when Heath used a knife, cutting Tapen in the chest, inflicting a wound which proved fatal November 22.

George Richardson, colored cripple, for an assault with intent to kill; Thomas Burton and W. H. Bell, indicted for house-breaking; James McKeynen and Henry Bonnot, larceny from the person; Wm. Morris, James Scott, grand larceny, and others guilty.

In the case of Andrew Vigil for false pretenses the recognizance was forfeited.

Wm. T. Walker, charged with violating the gambling law, pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two months in jail.
